

FIND WHAT ADVENTURE AWAITS YOU IN DUBUQUE!

Dubuque's steep hills and steeples reflect its rich history and vibrant community spirit, offering locals and travelers alike a lasting impression and newfound appreciation for "Little Rome" in Iowa. Your group can embrace the steep hills and steeples the following ways:

Fenelon Place Elevator: World's shortest, steepest funicular railroad, offering thrilling rides and breathtaking views of Downtown Dubuque and beyond.

Eagle Point Park: A remarkable 164-acre park overlooking the Mississippi River, providing serene nature escapes and sweeping panoramas.

Sinsinawa Mound: A blend of natural beauty and history with museums, a chapel and a renowned gift shop.

St. Luke's United Methodist Church: Dubuque's first Methodist church with a rich history and notable Tiffany-Stained glass windows.

Steeple Square: Former St. Mary's Catholic Church with Dubuque's tallest steeple, now a unique event space preserving heritage.

St. Francis Xavier Basilica: A testament to Catholic heritage in Iowa, inviting visitors to become immersed in its sacred ambiance.

See traveldubuque.com for more.

DUBUQUE, IOWA

Become a groupie.

WE KNOW YOU'LL BE A FAN OF WHERE IOWA STARTED.

Dubuque, Iowa breaks Midwest stereotypes of flat farmland. With rolling hills and limestone bluffs along the Mississippi River, it is one of the best-kept secrets for group tours.

TRAVEL
Dubuque
COM